

ET Italy communication activities: last updates

The communication of Italy's candidacy to host the Einstein Telescope is gaining momentum through multiple channels: institutional communication (website and social media), events at international, national, and regional levels —especially in the candidate area —and media engagement.

In this talk, we will present the latest updates on ongoing initiatives.

Primary author: SERRA, Matteo

Presenter: SERRA, Matteo

Track Classification: Communications: Communications and Outreach